

FRITZ MUSICTOURS BERLIN

In cooperation with Radio Fritz – public youth radio station of rbb (Rundfunk Berlin Brandenburg)

An exciting journey through Berlin's Pop Music History

Berlin has a colourful history with regards to music. A great number of musicians have been inspired by Berlin's unique atmosphere and numerous important events in Pop History are closely linked to Berlin.

FRITZ MUSICTOURS BERLIN follows the trail of Berlin's Pop Music History.

- How and where did DAVID BOWIE, IGGY POP, DEPECHE MODE, U2, NICK CAVE and others live and record their albums in Berlin?
- Where did German Punk Rock-Lady NINA HAGEN used to live at the former East-Berlin and later West-Berlin?
- Where do Berlin bands like RAMMSTEIN go out for a drink?
- Why did a woman once get locked in at the TRESOR-Club? (The Vault)
- What happens behind the scenes?

These and many other questions will be answered for you on the FRITZ MUSICTOURS BERLIN. On the Tour Bus we criss-cross the music capital visiting well-known and not so well-known places where music history has been made and continues to be made. On monitors on the Bus one can watch interviews with various artists as well as others who work behind the scenes.

Berlin music guide Thilo Schmied has worked since years with various bands and artists, he knows stunning stories about every stop on the tour.
